

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

STEVEN ALLEN BROWN,

Petitioner,

v.

RON BROOMFIELD, Warden of California State Prison at San Quentin,

Respondent.¹

Case No. 1:19-cv-01796-ADA

DEATH PENALTY CASE

ORDER REGARDING POST-PETITION
SCHEDULING

The record reflects that on September 30, 2022, Petitioner filed in this proceeding his initial federal habeas corpus petition. The Court previously ordered that it would provide further scheduling and set any necessary case management conference after filing of the petition.

Accordingly, counsel for the parties, by not later than thirty (30) days following the service date of this order, are directed to meet and confer and then file a joint (preferred) or separate statement addressing their respective positions as to:

1. Which claims and subclaims asserted in the federal petition are exhausted, partially exhausted, or unexhausted.

1 2. A schedule upon which Petitioner shall file any motion for exhaustion stay;
2 Respondent shall file his answer or any other responsive pleading; and
3 Petitioner shall file his reply or other response thereto.

4 3. Whether a case management conference is requested as to the foregoing.

5 The Court will review the statement(s) and provide further case scheduling and/or set
6 any necessary case management conference.
